

AEJMC - ICD STUDENT INTERNATIONAL MULTIMEDIA NEWS STORY CONTEST 2022

The International Communication Division of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC) announces its student contest in multimedia news story writing for the year 2021-2022. The contest is open to all undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty members working with students on stories. However, the first writer/author should be a student.

- Entries must be nonfiction journalistic stories with multimedia support on a topic related to an international issue.
- The news story should have an international angle on a local story or it may be an international story with a local angle.
- The news story has to be in English.
- It should be a written story submitted as a class assignment and/or published on the university website or on a news media website (stories published between April 1, 2021 and June 1, 2022 will be considered).
- Stories will be judged based on criteria such as originality, news values, relevance of the story idea, journalistic merit and effectiveness of multimedia elements.
- The story as well as the multimedia support should have been authored/executed by the same author/s.

Rules

- (1) Students may enter one news story with multimedia support.
- (2) All elements of the multimedia news story (defined as a journalistic, written, online story supported by multimedia elements such as Flash, photography, audio and/or video) should be authored/executed by the same author/s.
- (3) The completed entry form (one per entry) must be signed by a faculty member attesting to the originality of the multimedia news story and the accuracy of the information provided. The faculty member must attest that the story is posted or had earlier been posted on a Web site and provide the correct specific URL, or attest that the entry was completed as a class assignment.
- (4) Previous student winners of this contest are not eligible to enter again.
- (5) Entry deadline is June 15, 2022.
