Imagine a day when everyone engages with news. That's the goal for News Engagement Day, Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2015.

Join the effort to make staying informed a national priority. The Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication founded News Engagement Day on Oct. 7, 2014. AEJMC is working with schools and universities; local, social, and national media; and civic, educational, and community groups to expand News Engagement Day.

Help show current and future generations that being informed is empowering, enjoyable, and essential for a healthy democracy.
