May 21, 2015

TO: Felicia Greenlee Brown of AEJMC and to Whom It May Concern

FROM   Patrick Sutherland, SPIG Research Committee Co-Chair

SUBJ: 6 Accepted Paper Titles and Author Names/Schools

        The six accepted papers are listed below starting with the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Place papers and then in no particular order other than alphabetical.

1st Place Paper

Title: You Can, 2, Fix Stupid: Improving on a Novel Experiment to Teach a Need for News.

Author and School: Kelly Kaufhold; Texas State University

2nd Place Paper

Title: Best Practices for Student Learning Assessment in Smaller-Sized Undergraduate Mass Communication Programs

Author and School: Douglas Swanson; California State University, Fullerton

3rd Place Paper

Title: Getting it "Write:" Strengthening Basic Grammar Skills Through Collaborative Efforts

Author and School: Michael Drager; Shippensburg University
                      Holly Ott; The Pennsylvania State University
                      Carrie Sipes; Shippensburg University
                      Karen Johnson; Shippensburg University

-(Now Alphabetical by Paper Title)

#4-

Title: Collaborating Across Boundaries to Engage Journalism Students in Computational Thinking

Author and School: Kim Pearson; The College of New Jersey
                    Diane Bates; The College of New Jersey
                    Sarah Pulimood; The College of New Jersey

#5-

Title: External Resources Use for Undergraduates Learning Coding in Communication Classes

Author and School: Amanda Sturgill; Elon University
                   Ben Hannam; Elon University
                   Brian Walsh; Elon University

#6-

Title: Instructional Videos Snubbed by Online Students--Reliance on Videos Re-Evaluated

Author and School: Catherine Strong; Massey University